

Mandatory Reporting “will Paralyze People” or “ Understanding Perspectives from Within the Child Prot

Child and Youth Care Forum

52, 139-156

DOI: 10.1007/s10566-022-09676-y

Citation Report

#	ARTICLE	IF	CITATIONS
1	Expert survey: safer research with parent survivors of child maltreatment. Ethics and Behavior, 0, , 1-16.	1.8	0
2	The stark implications of abolishing child welfare: An alternative path towards support and safety. Child and Family Social Work, 0, , .	1.4	1
3	“Unfortunately what’s right isn’t always what’s best.” Exploring teacher and school staff experiences with mandated reporting. Journal of Public Child Welfare, 0, , 1-26.	0.9	0