

Thief, Slave Trader, Murderer: Christopher Columbus and

Wicazo Sa Review

23, 25-50

DOI: 10.1353/wic.2008.0002

Citation Report

#	ARTICLE	IF	CITATIONS
1	Medical Necessity and the Founding of the West India Regiments. , 2020, , 19-53.		0
2	The Ideal Soldier. , 2020, , 54-83.		0
3	The Use and Abuse of the Black Soldier. , 2020, , 84-112.		0
4	Dehumanising the Black Soldier. , 2020, , 139-163.		0
7	Damage Done: The Asante Campaigns. , 2020, , 164-184.		0
10	Statistics and the Reinterpretation of Black Bodies. , 2020, , 113-138.		0
12	If â€œRhodes must fall, who shall fall next?. Taxon , 2022, 71, 249-255.	0.7	17
13	Black Lives Matter and Nigrescence Theory: When Police Violence Triggers an Encounter. Journal of Black Psychology , The, 2022, 48, 309-326.	1.7	2
14	From hunters to hell hounds: the dogs of Columbus and transformations of the human-canine relationship in the early Spanish Caribbean. Colonial Latin American Review , 2022, 31, 354-380.	0.2	0
15	Exploring Polyvocal Stories of Space, Place, Movement, and Migration. , 2022, , 111-144.		0
16	Thingified Flesh: A Womanist Approach to De/Colonial Reproductive Politics and Research. Women's Studies in Communication , 2023, 46, 354-359.	0.5	0
17	Eponyms in biological nomenclature and the Slippery Slope and Pandoraâ€™s Box arguments. Ukrainian Botanical Journal , 2023, 80, 381-385.	0.4	0
18	â€œMoney does not stinkâ€™ â€œ Accounting and slavery. Accounting History , 2024, 29, 314-332.	1.1	0