

“Cured” but not “healed”: The application of p survivorship

Social Science and Medicine

275, 113802

DOI: 10.1016/j.socscimed.2021.113802

Citation Report

#	ARTICLE	IF	CITATIONS
1	Improving Care for Patients Living with Prolonged Incurable Cancer. Cancers , 2021, 13, 2555.	1.7	10
2	The Essential Role of Occupational Therapy to Address Functional Needs of Individuals Living with Advanced Chronic Cancers. Seminars in Oncology Nursing , 2021, 37, 151172.	0.7	3
3	Definition of Survivorship Care. , 2021, , 1-22.		0
4	Cancer survivorship: existential suffering. International Journal of Qualitative Studies on Health and Well-being , 2021, 16, 2001897.	0.6	1
5	How does pain work? A qualitative analysis of how young adults with chronic pain conceptualize the biology of pain. European Journal of Pain , 2023, 27, 424-437.	1.4	3
8	Principles of Palliative Care in the Context of Survivorship. , 2023, , 1-23.		0